

AIRSIDE SAFETY

The aim of this course is to ensure full compliance with the international regulations (ICAO, EASA, etc) as well with the National Authorities.

At the end of this course the students will be able to understand the principals of apron safety as well as how to bring their contribution to a safer working place.

Target group: all staff working in airside area.

Syllabus

- Apron design (short presentation)
- Markings
- Apron lights (codes)
- Access to restricted areas
- Apron design (in detail)
- Main components of an aircraft
- Aircraft fuelling
- PPE (personal protective equipment) and DG (dangerous goods)
- Meteo conditions affecting aviation / LVO (low visibility operations)
- FOD (foreign object debris / damage)
- Radio communication
- Working permit

Course duration: 1 day / 8 hours

Contact: office@aeroas.ro