

Change Management at Aerodromes

This course is based on the most recent aerodrome regulations and world's best practices on change management and provides the participants with the understanding of management and safety tools in order to assist operators comply with their legal requirements during any organizational, operational or infrastructural change.